Get career-ready at Northern Lights College in British Columbia, Canada.

Are you interested in a two-year diploma or degree that will start you on your path in Canada?

Are you looking to study at a college in a small town with big opportunities for work and play?

Do you want to study on a safe and welcoming campus with dedicated staff to support your needs?

Then join us here at NLC. Our programs combine classroom and applied learning to prepare you to succeed in the Canadian workplace. Our diplomas and degrees are recognized across Canada.

In 2018, BC Business named Fort St. John and Dawson Creek the top two places to work in BC.

Fort St. John and Dawson Creek welcome you with small town kindness and provide services of a big city, including hospitals, supermarkets, restaurants, and bus service.

World-class performers make the Encana Events Centre in Dawson Creek a stop on their tours.

Located in the Peace River region, you can study in one of the most picturesque areas of Canada.

Northern British Columbia boasts a diverse population of Indigenous peoples that share their territory with us.

We are the first and only post-secondary institution in British Columbia with an intercollegiate rodeo team.

Participate in outdoor camping, horseback riding, cricket, snow-shoeing, and other intercultural and recreational activities.

Northeast BC has great work opportunities during and after your studies. Local businesses are proud to hire our students.

Of all BC colleges, we offer the lowest tuition for two-year programs.

“The tuition is affordable, but also the people here—the instructors and staff—they’re willing to help you with all your needs, not only specifically in your studies, but also in your personal life.”

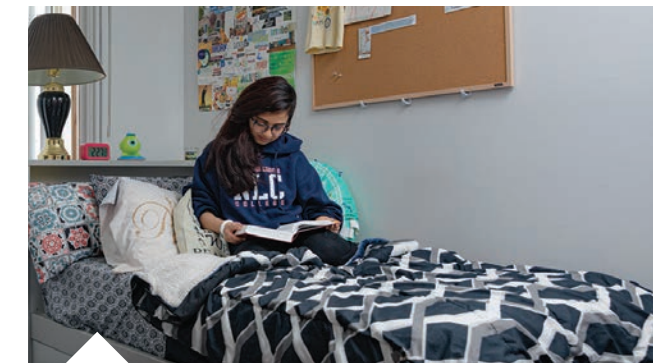

—Myrene, class of 2021 (Philippines)
